

Probate and estate administration and planning – we're here to help

WHEN someone close to you dies, dealing with their financial affairs is not the first thing on your mind.

As licensed practitioners for probate related work and specialists in all aspects of taxation, accounts preparation and estate planning, Butler & Co are best placed to take care of your probate and estate administration work. We can provide as much or as little support as you need to get things done.

- Complete the probate process as quickly and as smoothly as possible.
- Keep the amount of tax the deceased's estate has to pay to a minimum.
- Keep the costs of administering the estate as low as possible.
- Maximise the amount of money available to the beneficiaries.

We can also help you and your family with

- Estate planning
- Exccutorships
- Inheritance tax planning
- Retirement planning
- Trusts planning and administration
